

HEALTH CARE ETHICS Spring 2002 PRACTICUM

Faculty Reviewer:	FINAL SCORE: _____ (raw scores _____)
ALL Participants (Please Include Small Group Number):
Instructions: Rate each category for an overall total 0-5 points, taking into consideration the areas described.
0 = Very Unsatisfactory		1 = Unsatisfactory		2 = Low Average
3 = High Average		4 = Very Good		5 = Superior
IDENTIFICATION OF ETHICAL PROBLEMS				0	1	2	3	4	5
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Acknowledges that patient is central 2. Demonstrates understanding of ethical principles pertinent to the problem, (i.e., beneficence, justice, non-maleficence, autonomy, etc.) 3. Identifies important ethical issues, (i.e., is healthcare professional being paternalistic?; are patient's needs / desires being considered?, etc.) 4. Identifies all important stakeholders, (i.e., patient, family, health care provider, etc.) 				Comments:
II. GROUP PROCESS				0	1	2	3	4	5
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Acknowledges role of other health professionals 2. Encourages other disciplines to contribute to process 3. Participates in team process 4. Accepts responsibility for team decision 5. Responds to various team needs 				Comments:
III. ANALYTICAL ABILITY/PROBLEM SOLVING/CRITICAL THINKING SKILLS				0	1	2	3	4	5
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Utilizes "Bebeau Analytical method" effectively. (GRID) 2. Clearly demonstrates problem solving skills 3. Effectively discriminates factors in problem solving process 4. Respects values and beliefs of others and incorporates consideration of them in analyzing problem 5. Uses realistic criteria for considering solutions 				Comments:					